

Don't Get Stuffed!

By Kathy Keats, The Agility Coach

Many of the recent challenges at the international level have had to do with call-offs and discriminations; these sequences give you plenty of practice with these skills. The trick to keeping your dog happy is to let him know a turn is coming before he locks onto the wrong obstacle—whether you use a verbal or physical cue, the cue should happen before the dog takes the previous obstacle.

If you are having difficulty reading these sequences, check out The Art of Reading Agility Courses at www.theagilitycoach.ca, which includes over 50 pages of information and over an hour of video chalk talks!

Have fun and remember to reward your dog often, even if you make a mistake. A happy dog is an enthusiastic teammate!
