

PHOTOS © JO SERMON, ALISSA BEHN, SIMON PEACHEY, CLEAN RUN

On the Cover

6 My Dog Can't Weave in the Ring

"Ring-only" weaving problems generally come down to three things. Let's take a look at the common causes and solutions for them. By Jo Sermon

16 Practically Training: Anatomy of a Run Gone Bad

Instead of beating yourself up after a bad run, learn how to look at the big picture and take into account everything that can and does affect your runs so that you can run smarter next time. By Sandy Rogers

29 Course Design & Judging: The Judge's Position

The best judges are prepared and have thought out their paths before the first dog runs, so they know they have the best view in the house for all areas of the dog, and they will walk the same path consistently for each competitor. By Greg Derrett

33 25 Years, 25 Memories: A Look Back at the History of Clean Run

Since 2020 marks Clean Run's 25th anniversary, we thought we should take a little trip down memory lane. Here are 25 magazine memories. By Brenna Fender with an introduction by Bud Houston

Features

4 Tip of the Month – Need to close a bunch of Clean Run Course Designer windows at once? By Janet Gauntt

5 Editorializing: Happy Birthday and Stuff! – It's an exciting time. The agility season is gearing up for those of you in cooler climates, and Clean Run is celebrating our 25th birthday. By Brenna Fender

10 Bring Your "A" Game to Your Next Trial – Have you ever left a trial feeling like you didn't perform to the best of your abilities? Here are some ideas to optimize the trial experience for your dog and yourself, and to set up your team for success. By Melanie Miller

14 Backyard Dogs – Have you ever left a trial feeling like you didn't perform to the best of your abilities? Here are some ideas to optimize the trial experience for your dog and yourself, and to set up your team for success. By Melanie Miller

21 Backyard Mastery: Move It! – Wring every challenge you can out of your small space by moving and rotating jumps to increase the handling and training challenges. By Steve Schwarz

24 Celebrating 10 Years of Mixed Breeds in AKC Agility – It's been ten years since the AKC Canine Partners program launched, and it's been an enormous success. All-American Dogs have earned more than 30,000 agility titles and are one of the top ten most entered "breeds" at the AKC Nationals. By Penny Leigh

43 The 25% Solution: Sequences for Small Spaces – This month's exercises focus on pinwheel and 270 training. By John Reid

45 The Mental Aspect to a Physical Sport – There is no "cookie-cutter" approach for how to create the best mental attitude for agility. You have to find what works for you. But here are some suggestions to help you get started. By Kama Rueschenberg

47 "Frankly, My Dear..." – If your goals conflict with what matters most to you, you're always going to struggle to achieve them. But if you set out what matters most to you, you can start setting goals that fit your priorities, and that will be easier to achieve. By Dr. Kathrine McAleese

51 Power Paws Drills: Jumping with Jay – Is your youngster ready for some jump skill training? Follow along with these drills to see the next steps Nancy takes with her young dog's jump education. By Nancy Gyes

56 Why Is Canine Conditioning Important and How Do You Incorporate It into Your Dog's Training? – Learn how to overcome the top three roadblocks to starting a conditioning program for your dog: time, expense, and uncertainty on where to begin or how to progress their program. By Carolyn McIntyre

Cover Dog

Power Tripps Fancier Than Regular ADCH, JCHG, SCHB, GCHB, MCJCH, TMB, a.k.a. Super Sic, a 5-year-old mixed breed owned by Dianne Morey of California. Photo by Adriana Nottestad