

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of exercises.....	8
Foreword.....	9
Preface.....	11
Acknowledgments.....	15
About the author.....	17
Chapter 1 Nuts & Bolts.....	19
Is CU for you?	20
For instructors.....	22
Which dogs are appropriate for CU?.....	23
For agility students: Stand up for yourself and your dog.....	27
Chapter 2 Basic Concepts.....	31
A behavioral program.....	32
The principal principles.....	35
Conditioning a relaxed response	36
Reading your dog	37
Working with thresholds.....	44
The Goldilocks Rule	48
Using the Premack Principle to teach focus.....	51
Reframing the picture	56
If it's not working.....	57
Chapter 3 Night One.....	59
Before the first class.....	60
Connecting with your dog requires understanding his state of mind	61
Twilight times	64
Passive attention.....	65
To leash or not to leash	68
Leash exercises.....	70
Default behaviors	70
Release cues.....	71
Reorienting points.....	72
Sacred space	73
“I'm gonna get you!”	73
“We don't need no stinkin' leashes!”	73
“'But he runs off the second I unclip the leash...”	74
Leash comes off, toy comes out	74

Management	75
The Great De-bait	77
The ballet of teamwork.....	78
Teamwork exercise in the box.....	78
Beginning of box work.....	79
Chapter 4 Night Two.....	85
Playing with stimulation levels	86
Active attention: Transitioning from passive to active work	88
Active attention exercises.....	90
Doggie Zen.....	90
Leave It.....	90
Targeting	95
Go to Place	98
Recognizing when to drop the leash	108
Balancing environmental challenges and performance criteria.....	109
Starting start-line stays	114
Chapter 5 Night Three.....	121
Whistle while you work: Simultaneously building focus and changing attitudes (Look at That! game)	122
A different approach	124
Why do I like this game so much?	124
Training the Look at That! game	129
Giving dogs a task to focus on while working near other dogs (parallel games) ..	137
Parallel racing.....	138
Working with motion-triggered dogs	140
Training a reactive dog to watch other dogs in motion.....	141
Adding motivational cues	144
Chapter 6 Night Four.....	147
Whistle while you work: Increasing both enthusiasm and focus in a distracting environment (Give Me a Break game).....	148
Sniffing is not a crime!	152
Teaching the dog to think through his arousal (the Off-switch game)	154
Impulse control and agility must go hand in paw.....	155
Dealing with poor impulse control on the agility course	157
Combining the Off-switch game with other games	160
Close encounters (Campfire Circle game)	162

Chapter 7 Night Five	165
Working up to working loose: Increasing challenges.....	166
Prepping for even closer encounters (There’s A Dog In Your Face! game).....	166
Targeting task to perform loose around other moving dogs (Get Outs around jump standards)	172
Making it personal: Customizing the CU approach	174
“But he only plays at home”	175
 Chapter 8 Night Six	 185
Raising criteria: More fast, more furious, still under threshold.....	186
Distance work (the Out ’n Mats game)	186
Work in tight quarters (the Car Crash game)	187
 Chapter 9 Night Seven	 191
Next steps: Applying CU to agility contexts	193
Think inside the box	195
Guidelines for integrating CU games into daily life.....	197
Dealing with the distracted	198
Coping with stress	203
Combining games to reduce stress	208
Help for the CU handler: Dealing with real life	209
 Chapter 10 Real Life: Snap’s Progress Report	 213
The match.....	215
The first trial	216
The pet expo	217
The second trial: We got him just where we want him.....	217
The third trial: Tail of a brave little munchkin	219
 Recommended Resources	 225

LIST OF EXERCISES (IN ORDER OF APPEARANCE)

Passive attention exercises	65
Leash exercises	70
• Default behaviors	70
• Release cues	71
• Reorienting points	72
• Sacred space	73
• “I’m gonna get you!”	73
• “We don’t need no stinkin’ leashes!”	73
• “But he runs off the second I unclip the leash...”	74
• Leash comes off, toy comes out	74
Management rules	75
• Calm behavior opens the crate door	75
• Reorienting to your handler is the ticket to going anywhere	76
• Management for the hypervigilant dog	76
Teamwork exercise in the box	78
Box work	79
• Rate of reinforcement	80
• Click for orienting	81
• Box work modifications	82
The Pop-up game	87
Active attention exercises	90
• Doggie Zen	90
• Leave It	90
• Targeting	95
• Go to Place	98
Start-line stays	114
Look at That! game	122
Parallel games	137
Parallel racing	138
Give Me a Break game	148
Off-switch game	154
Campfire circle game	162
There’s a Dog in Your Face! game	166
Get Outs	172
Out ’n Mats game	186
Car Crash game	187