

Assemble your jump. If you choose to use PVC cement, we recommend not gluing the top hole of the 5-way connector where you insert the pipe for the upright. This will allow you to disassemble your jump for easy storage.

